Exhibit USA 778
Filed March 2, 1946

We, Peter John Ambrose Calvocoressi, of Guise House, Aspley Guise, Bletchley, in the County of Buckingham, barrister-at-law, Acting Wing Commander in the Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, and Oliver Charles Berthoud, of 79 Streathbourne Road, London, S.W.17, schoolmaster, Major in the Intelligence Corps, jointly and severally make oath and say as follows:

1. In September 1945 we were detailed by the Joint Intelligence Sub-Committee of the Joint Chiefs of Staff to go to Nuernberg, Germany, to advise and assist the prosecutors of major Axis War Criminals before the International Military Tribunal.

2. Acting in such capacity we were required to draw up a list of the persons comprised in the "General Staff and High Command Group" of the German Armed Forces, as defined in the Indictment presented to the said Tribunal. The document now produced and shown to us, marked A, is a copy of the list compiled by us in pursuance of this request.

3. In compiling this list we consulted the relevant Intelligence departments of the Admiralty, the War Office and the Air Ministry, and we used lists produced for us by those departments as the basis for our own final list. In cases which seemed to us to be doubtful and to require further elucidation or confirmation we caused inquiries to be made of senior German officers, now prisoners of war in England and Germany.

4. We do not claim that the said final list is wholly exhaustive or necessarily correct in every detail. In particular some of the dates there given are now known to us to be slightly inaccurate. It will be seen, moreover, that certain names were overlooked in the first place and appended as corrigenda. It may be that there are a few further omissions which we have not spotted. We are, however, confident that the said list is a substantially accurate and substantially complete list of the members of the said "General Staff and High Command Group".

5. Officers who qualified for inclusion in the said group by reason of no more than a few weeks' service in a post or command comprised in the said definition in the Indictment were omitted from the list.

Peter Cahoreski Wing Commander

Oliver Bertrand. Major.

Sworn to (at 9 Old Square Lincoln's Inn in the County of London) before me on this 14th day of February 1946.

Note

In 1933 von Blomberg as Reich Defence Minister (Reichswehrminister) had under him a Chief of Army Staff and a Chief of Naval Staff (Chef Heeresleitung, Chef Marineleitung)- von Fritsch and Raeder respectively.

In May 1935 von Blomberg became Reich Minister for War and C-in-C Armed Forces (Reichskriegsminister und Oberbefehlshaber der Wehrmacht). The Army and Navy Staffs became High Commands (Oberkommando des Heeres - OKH, and Oberkommando der Kriegsmarine - OKM), their chiefs being upgraded to Commanders in Chief (Oberbefehlshaber). Von Fritsch and Raeder remained in their positions.

The Air Ministry (Reichsministerium der Luftfahrt) was a separate institution. Göring was at once Air Minister and Commander in Chief of the Air Force (Reichsminister derr Luftfahrt und Oberbefehlshaber der Luftwaffe - R.d.L. u. Ob.d.L. It was not until 1944 that the air set up was nominally brought into line with the other services and renamed High Command of the Air Force (Oberkommando der Luftwaffe - OKL).

In both the Reichswehrministerium and Reichskriegsministerium there was an interservice department called the Wehrmachtamt. From this developed in February 1938 the High Command of the Armed Forces (Oberkommando der Wehrmacht - OKW), which superseded the War Ministry. Keitel became Chief of the OKW (Chef OKW) and von Blomberg retired. The OKW contained an Operations Dept. (Wehrmachtführungsamt) - later Operations Staff (Wehrmachtführungsstab) whose Chief (Chef OKW WFSt) was Jodl. Warlimont got the title of Deputy Chief in 1941.

Von Brauchitsch replaced von Fritsch in Feb. 1938 as Commander in Chief of the Army and was in turn replaced by Hitler in Dec. 1941. Dönitz succeeded Raeder as Commander in Chief of the Navy in Jan. 1943. For the last month of the war von Greim was Commander in Chief of the Air Force in the place of Göring.
